

Forecast For East Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 24 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Christmas Day generally cloudy, rain edging northeast. Cold wind.

This Evening and Tonight:

Outbreaks of rain across the region, may briefly turn to sleet or snow over the highest tops in the Peak District before easing. Fog, low cloud lifting in north, and turning colder with a brisk easterly breeze. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Saturday:

A cold, generally cloudy start to Christmas Day morning. Further rain will gradually edge northeast through the day, turning wintry across the Peak District into the evening. A cold wind. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

Boxing Day, early rain, some hill snow, easing and turning drier and less cold. Monday and Tuesday, variable cloud with a few showers, temperatures nearer average. Generally lighter winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.